

SPG Kolkata Chapter Organises Inter School Quiz Competition

Society of Petroleum Geophysicists (SPG) (India) Kolkata Chapter organized Inter-School Quiz competition on 24th August 2013 at ONGC Officers Club, Golf Green Kolkata.

Almost all the prestigious schools of South Kolkata were invited to participate for the event. The competition generated a lot of enthusiasm amongst the teams and was closely fought. The questions were based on Earth Sciences and Environmental Sciences.

The team of Master Rohit Khanna- class XI and Basab Datta Chaudhury, class X from Rammohan Mission High School, Kolkata bagged the winner trophy. The first runner's trophy was bagged by Ms. Mahima Dey and Megha Murty of class XI from G.D. Birla Foundation for Education. Master

Sampreet Sarkar and Agnibha Sen, class-XI from Modern Academy were declared 2nd runners up. Sh. Rahul Kumar, a young ONGCian played the key role of Quiz Master.

Sh. Anand Prakash, Secretary, addressed the students and advised them to dream big so as to make (India) self-reliant on its energy need in coming 15-20 years. The teachers of the participating school were also felicitated.

Sh. Pulak Bose, Jt. Secretary, SPG proposed a vote of thanks and invited the winners to Kochi for SPG Biennial Conference.

Sh. Anand Prakash, Secretary, addressed the students and advised them to dream big so as to make (India) self-reliant on its energy need in coming 15-20 years. The teachers of the participating school were also felicitated.

Sh. Chandan Samaddar, DGM (GP) presenting winner trophy to the Students from Ram Mohan Mission High School.

Sh. Sanjib Sett, Executive Member, SPG, presenting 1st Runner's Trophy to students from G.D. Birla Centre for Education

Sh. Pulak Bose, Jt. Secretary, SPG presenting 2nd Runner's trophy to the students from The Modern Academy

Sh. Anand Prakash, Secretary, SPG presenting a token of appreciation to the teacher