

Inauguration of Student Chapter at MIT, Pune on 27-3-2011

The MIT SPG Student Chapter was inaugurated on Sunday, March 27, 2011 by Hon. Mr. Apurba Saha, President SPG India, and Executive Director, Mumbai High Asset ONGC. Mr. Shymal Bhattacharya, GGM, Subsurface Manager, ONGC Mumbai was also present during inauguration ceremony along with Prof L K Kshirsagar, Principal and ONGC Chair (additional Charge).

Mr. Apurba Saha briefly explained activities of SPG India. He also briefed about advantages and benefits of SPG student membership. He expressed his happiness over establishment of student chapter in the Petroleum Engineering Department. Mr. Saha stressed importance of integrative approach while solving problems in petroleum industry. He also gave detailed account of Energy scenario in India. He believed that with proper scientific approach and technological advancement India can reduce existing large gap between demand and production. He was of the opinion that Gas Economy will have substantial role to play in future.

Shri A. Saha, president SPG- India inaugurating the student Chapter at MIT, Pune.