Dear SPGians,

Society of Petroleum Geophysicist (SPG), India, since its inception, has been playing a very significant role in bringing together the eminent geoscientists, technocrats, academicians, students and service providers on a common platform for exchange of ideas, sharing of experiences showcasing of technical skills and exposition of state of the art technologies to the global participants.

GEOHORIZONS, the in house journal of SPG is plying a pivotal role in fulfilling the objective of knowledge sharing among the petroleum geoscientists. A total of nine quality papers from eminent geoscientists on various interesting topics are published in this journal. I am sure that the efforts put up by the editorial team will be appreciated by you all while going through the journal.

I am pleased to take this opportunity to inform you that Society of Petroleum Geophysicist (SPG), India is organizing 11th Biennial Conference and Exposition at Jaipur during 04-06 December 2015. It is a privilege to invite the delegates, speakers and invitees from India and abroad for “Jaipur 2015”.

The theme “Solution through Technologies: Uncertainty to Possibility” has been aptly chosen keeping in view the prevailing challenges in E&P industry and to look for the solutions utilizing the new technologies by minimizing the inherent uncertainties thus maximizing the possibility of hydrocarbon discoveries.

Jaipur 2015 is receiving many quality papers covering all aspects of E&P business and more than 250 papers shall be presented by various experts and professionals from India and abroad. Twenty-two pre and post conference workshops, under continuing education (CE) programmes on advance topics relevant to the theme of the conference and other courses covering multi-facets of E&P business are being organized. The plenary sessions on specialized topics will have great appeal to the participants.

The meticulous planning and team work are key factor for success of organizing an event of such a scale. I request your valuable cooperation and contribution. Moreover, suggestions for further improvements are solicited from all the SPG members.

Looking forward to meet you at Jaipur, famous for its rich cultural heritage and a globally renowned tourist destination.
